

A/B Testing

A/B Testing is to compare two versions of the same idea to see which one performs statistically better against the predetermined goals. The measuring or comparative entity may vary from one-to-one challenge as such customer’s desires, attitudes and needs.

