Kano Analysis is used to determine which product attributes have the greatest impact on customer satisfaction. Entities includes required, desired, exciter/delighter, neutral and anti-feature.