Artifact Analysis

Artifact analysis is a systematic examination of the material, aesthetic, and interactive qualities of service/product/process. Assessment at this point of time is critical as this the outcome of the service/product/process.